

The Community Remedy Options

- Mediation (getting both parties to talk to each other, for example to solve a neighbour dispute)
- A written or verbal apology
- The person responsible signing an Acceptable Behaviour Contract (where the person responsible agrees not to repeat such behaviour in the future, if they do they will face more formal consequences)
- Attend a neighbour justice panel (the person responsible meets with representative of the local community so that they understand the consequences of their behaviour and the panel will agree further action)
- Repairing damage (for example cleaning up graffiti or replacing a smashed window)
- Paying an appropriate amount for repair or replacement
- Participation in a funded initiative (for example by doing unpaid work for the community to support a project that has been set up by the Police and Crime Commissioner to reduce crime)
- Do something to compensate the community (for example by doing unpaid local work for an appropriate period of time, such as picking up litter)
- Words of advice from a Police Officer or PCSO
