6. AOB

Paul Brown (Chair) proposed David does not read the cases verbatim at the meetings:

The Proposal being:

The papers/cases are distributed well in advance, therefore we read, familiarise ourselves of the cases, make any comments and if we require any further clarification/queries or questions to send them to Jyoti, in advance, so that David can carry out the necessary investigations prior to the meeting and provide the group with the relevant updates at the meeting.

In the case of a representative attending the meeting, on behalf of a panel member, the emphasis would be on them to ensure their representative has the papers and has been briefed on any concerns they may wish to raise.

David will still review the cases, in brief, at the meetings highlighting any updates or outcomes of note.

Paul has asked if we could trial this at the next meeting and review thereafter.
